10. The annual retirement meeting shall be the meeting of the Directors at which the accounts of the Company are adopted.
11. Retiring Directors may be reappointed but a Director who has served for two consecutive terms of office can only be reappointed by majority resolution of the Directors.

Powers of Directors

No alteration of the Memorandum or Articles shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Directors by the Articles and a meeting of the Directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Directors.
16. The continuing Directors or a sole continuing Director may act despite any vacancies in their number but while there are fewer Directors than required for a quorum the Directors may only act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors.
17. All acts done by a person acting as a Director shall, even if afterwards discovered that there was a defect in his or her appointment or that he or she was disqualified from holding office or had vacated office, be as valid as if such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Director.
18. Subject to the Articles the Directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit.

 - 22.2 the composition of any such committee shall be entirely in the discretion of the Directors and may comprise such of their number (if any) as the resolution may specify;
 - 22.3 the deliberations of any such committee shall be reported regularly to the Directors and any resolution passed or decision taken by any such committee shall be reported promptly to the Directors and for that purpose every committee shall appoint a secretary;
 - 22.4 all delegations under this Article shall be variable or revocable at any time;
 - 22.5 the Directors may make such regulations and impose such terms and conditions and give such mandates to any such committee as they may from time to time think fit; and

29. A members' general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority of the members having a right to attend and vote at that meeting. Any such majority shall together represent at least 90% of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the members.
30. A Directors' meeting shall be called by at least seven clear days' notice unless either:-
 - 30.1 all the Directors agree; or
 - 30.2 urgent circumstances require shorter notice.

Contents of notice

31. Every notice calling a meeting shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting, whether it is a Directors' or members' annual general or general meeting, and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If a special resolution is to be proposed at a members' general meeting, the notice shall include the proposed resolution and specify that it is proposed as a special resolution.
32. In every notice calling a members' general meeting of the Company there must appear with reasonable prominence a statement informing the member of his or her rights to appoint another person as his or her proxy at a members' general meeting.

Service of notice

33. Notice of meetings shall be given to each Director and in the case of members' general meetings notice shall also be given to any patron(s) and to the auditors of the Company.

Manner of serving notice

34. Notice of meetings shall be given in accordance with Articles 75 to 79.

Quorum

35. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present. At Directors' meetings one person present in person and entitled to vote shall be a quorum. At members' meetings one person present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall be a quorum. If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the Directors may determine and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting those present and entitled to vote shall be a quorum.

Chair

36. The chair, if any, of the Directors or in his or her absence another Director nominated by the Directors present shall preside as chair of each meeting. (For the avoidance of doubt a proxy holder who is not a Director shall not be entitled to be appointed chair.)

Adjournment

37. The chair may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
38. When a members' general meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

Voting at Directors' meetings

39. At a Directors' meeting every person present in person and entitled to vote shall have one vote.
40. A resolution put to the vote of a Directors' meeting shall be decided on a show of hands.
41. Questions arising at a Directors' meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chair shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.

Voting at members' general meetings

42. A resolution put to the vote of a members' general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the Companies Acts, a poll may be demanded:
- 42.1 by the chair; or
- 42.2 by any person who, by virtue of being appointed proxy for one or more members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, holds two or more votes; or

- 42.3 by at least two members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- 42.4 by a member or members present in person or by proxy representing at least one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting.
43. Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the chair that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
44. The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chair and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
45. A poll shall be taken as the chair directs and he or she may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
46. A poll demanded on the election of the chair or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chair directs not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
47. No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
48. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chair whose decision shall be final and binding.
49. On a show of hands every person and entitled to vote shall have a maximum of one vote. On a poll, every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair shall not be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.
50. The appointment of a proxy shall be in such form as is usual or which the Directors may approve.
51. Unless the appointment of a proxy indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

- 51.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
- 51.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the members' general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
52. The appointment of a proxy and any authority under which it is executed or a copy of such authority in some way approved by the Directors may:
- 52.1 in the case of an instrument in writing be deposited at the registered office of the Company or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting at least 48 Hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote; or
- 52.2 in the case of an appointment sent by electronic means, where an address has been specified for the purpose of receiving documents or information by electronic means:
- 52.2.1 in the notice convening the meeting, or
- 52.2.2 in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting, or
- 52.2.3 in any invitation to appoint a proxy issued by the Company in relation to the meeting which is sent by electronic means,
- be received at such address not less than 48 Hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote;
- 52.3 in the case of a poll taken more than 48 Hours after it is demanded, be deposited or received as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded and at least 24 Hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or
- 52.4 where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than 48 Hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chair or to the Secretary (if any) or to any Director;
- and an appointment of proxy which is not deposited, delivered or received in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.
53. An appointment of a proxy may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given. A notice revoking the appointment of a proxy only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates. Attendance by a member in person at a meeting automatically revokes any appointment of a proxy by that member.

Virtual meetings of Directors

54. A Directors' meeting may be held by telephone or by televisual or other electronic or virtual means agreed by resolution of the Directors in which all participants may communicate simultaneously with all other participants.

Decisions without a meeting

Written members' resolutions

55. Subject to Article 56, a written resolution of the members of the Company passed in accordance with these Articles 55 to 60 shall have effect as if passed by the Company in a members' general meeting.
- 55.1 A written resolution is passed as an ordinary resolution if it is passed by a simple majority of the total voting rights of eligible members.
- 55.2 A written resolution is passed as a special resolution if it is passed by members representing not less than 75% of the total voting rights of eligible members. A written resolution is not a special resolution unless it states that it was proposed as special resolution.
- 55.3 In relation to a resolution proposed as a written resolution of the Company the eligible members are the members who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution on the circulation date of the resolution.
56. A members' resolution under the Companies Acts removing a Director or an auditor before the expiration of his or her term of office may not be passed as a written resolution.
57. A copy of the written resolution must be sent to every member together with a statement informing the member how to signify their agreement to the resolution and the date by which the resolution must be passed if it is not to lapse. Communications in relation to written resolutions shall be sent to the Company's auditors in accordance with the Companies Acts.
58. A member signifies their agreement to a proposed written resolution when the Company receives from him or her an authenticated document identifying the resolution to which it relates and indicating his or her agreement to the resolution.
- 58.1 If the document is sent to the Company in hard copy form, it is authenticated if it bears the member's signature.
- 58.2 If the document is sent to the Company by electronic means, it is authenticated if it bears the member's signature or if it is from an email address specified by the member to the Company for the purposes of receiving documents or information by electronic means.
59. A written resolution is passed when the required majority of eligible members have signified their agreement to it.
60. A proposed written resolution lapses if it is not passed within 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

Directors' decision-making

61. The Directors may take a unanimous decision without a Directors' meeting by indicating to each other by any means, including without limitation by electronic means, that they share a common view on a matter. Such a decision may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each Director or to which each Director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
62. A decision which is made in accordance with Article 61 shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting duly convened and held, provided the following conditions are complied with:
 - 62.1 Approval from each Director must be received by one person being either such person as all the Directors shall have nominated in advance for that purpose or such other person as volunteers if necessary ("the Recipient") , which person may, for the avoidance of doubt, be one of the Directors;
 - 62.2 Following receipt of response from all of the Directors, the recipient shall communicate to all of the Directors by any means whether the resolution has been formally approved by the Directors in accordance with Article 61;
 - 62.3 The date of the decision shall be the date of the communication from the Recipient confirming formal approval;
 - 62.4 The Recipient shall prepare a minute of the decision in accordance with Article 73.

Conflicts of interest

63. Whenever a Director finds himself or herself in a situation that is reasonably likely to give rise to a Conflict of Interest, he or she must declare his or her interest to the Directors unless, or except to the extent that, the other Directors are or ought reasonably to be aware of it already.
64. Whenever a matter is to be discussed at a meeting or decided in accordance with Article 61 and a Director has a Conflict of Interest in respect of that matter then, subject to Article 66, he or she must:
 - 64.1 remain only for such part of the meeting as in the view of the other Directors is necessary to inform the debate;
 - 64.2 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting; and
 - 64.3 withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.
65. If any question arises as to whether a Director has a Conflict of Interest, the question shall be decided by a majority decision of the other Directors.

Directors' power to authorise a conflict of interest

66. The Directors may (subject to such terms as they may impose from time to time, and subject always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation) authorise, to the fullest extent permitted by law:

- 66.1 any matter which would otherwise result in a Director infringing his or her duty to avoid a situation in which he or she has a Conflict of Interest; and
- 66.2 the manner in which a Conflict of Interest arising out of any Director's office, employment or position may be dealt with and, for the avoidance of doubt, they may modify or dispense with the requirements in Article 64 provided that when deciding to give such authorisation the provisions of Article 64 shall be complied with;
- provided that nothing in this Article 66 shall have the effect of allowing the Directors to authorise a benefit that is not permitted in accordance with the Memorandum.
67. If a matter, or office, employment or position, has been authorised by the Directors in accordance with Article 66 then the Director may absent himself or herself from meetings of the Directors at which anything relating to that matter, or that office, employment or position, will or may be discussed.
68. A Director shall not be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he or she derives from any matter, or from any office, employment or position, which has been authorised by the Directors in accordance with Article 66 (subject to any limits or conditions to which such approval was subject).
69. When a Director has a Conflict of Interest which he or she has declared to the Directors, he or she shall not be in breach of his or her duties to the Company by withholding confidential information from the Company if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by him or her.

Register of Directors' interests

70. The Directors shall cause a register of Directors' interests to be kept. A Director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which s/he has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Company which has not previously been declared.

Irregularities

71. The proceedings at any meeting or on the taking of any poll or the passing of a written resolution or the making of any decision shall not be invalidated by reason of any accidental informality or irregularity (including any accidental omission to give or any non-receipt of notice) or any want of qualification in any of the persons present or voting or by reason of any business being considered which is not specified in the notice unless a provision of the Companies Acts specifies that such informality, irregularity or want of qualification shall invalidate it.

General

Secretary

72. A Secretary may be appointed by the Directors for such term at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit, and may be removed by them. If there is no Secretary:

- 72.1 anything authorised or required to be given or sent to, or served on, the Company by being sent to its Secretary may be given or sent to, or served on, the Company itself, and if addressed to the Secretary shall be treated as addressed to the Company; and
- 72.2 anything else required or authorised to be done by or to the Secretary of the Company may be done by or to a Director, or a person authorised generally or specifically in that behalf by the Directors.

Minutes

- 73. The Directors shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose:
 - 73.1 of all appointments of officers made by the Directors;
 - 73.2 of all resolutions of the Company and of the Directors; and
 - 73.3 of all proceedings at meetings of the Company and of the Directors, and of committees of Directors, including the names of the Directors present at each such meeting;

and any such minute, if purported to be signed (or in the case of minutes of Directors' meetings signed or authenticated) by the chair of the meeting at which the proceedings were had, or by the chair of the next succeeding meeting, shall, as against any member or Director of the Company, be sufficient evidence of the proceedings. The minutes must be kept for at least ten years from the date of the meeting, resolution or decision.

Records and accounts

- 74. The Directors shall comply with the requirements of the Companies Acts as to maintaining a members' register, keeping financial records, the audit or examination of accounts and the preparation and transmission to the Registrar of Companies:
 - 74.1 annual reports;
 - 74.2 annual returns;
 - 74.3 annual statements of account.

Communications by and to the Company

- 75. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts and these Articles:
 - 75.1 a document or information (including any notice) to be given, sent or supplied to any person pursuant to the Articles may be given, sent or supplied in hard copy form or in electronic form;
 - 75.2 a document or information (including any notice) may only be given, sent or supplied in electronic form where the recipient has agreed (generally or specifically) that the document or information may be sent in that form and has not revoked that agreement.

- 75.3 Any document or information (including any notice) sent to a member under the Articles may be sent to the member's postal address as shown in the Company's register of members or (in the case of documents or information sent by electronic means) to an address specified for the purpose by the member.
76. Any document to be served on the Company or on any officer of the Company under the Articles may only be served:
- 76.1 in the case of documents in hard copy form, by sending or delivering them to the Company's registered office or delivering them personally to the officer in question; or
- 76.2 in the case of documents in electronic form, by sending them by electronic means:
- 76.2.1 to an address notified to the members for that purpose; and
- 76.2.2 from an address previously notified to the Company by the member for the purpose of sending and receiving documents and information.
77. A member present in person or by proxy at any meeting of the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purpose for which it was called.
78. Where a document or information is sent or supplied under the Articles:
- 78.1 Where the document or information is sent or supplied by post, service or delivery shall be deemed to be effected at the expiration of 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted. In proving such service or delivery it shall be sufficient to prove that such envelope was properly addressed and posted.
- 78.2 Where the document or information is sent or supplied by electronic means to an address specified for the purpose by the intended recipient, service or delivery shall be deemed to be effected on the same day on which it is sent or supplied. In proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that it was properly addressed.
79. Where any document or information has been sent or supplied by the Company by electronic means and the Company receives notice that the message is undeliverable:
- 79.1 if the document or information has been sent to a member and is notice of a members' general meeting of the Company or a copy of the annual report and accounts of the Company, the Company is under no obligation to send a hard copy of the document or information to the member's postal address as shown in the Company's register of members, but may in its discretion choose to do so; and
- 79.2 in all other cases, the Company will send a hard copy of the document or information to the member's postal address as shown in the Company's register of members, or in the case of a recipient who is not a member, to the last known postal address for that person.
- 79.3 The date of service or delivery of the documents or information shall be the date on which the original electronic communication was sent, notwithstanding the subsequent sending of hard copies.

Indemnity

80. Without prejudice to any indemnity to which a Director may otherwise be entitled, every Director of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company in relation to any liability incurred by him or her in that capacity but only to the extent permitted by the Companies Acts; and every other officer of the Company may be indemnified out of the assets of the Company in relation to any liability incurred by him or her in that capacity, but only to the extent permitted by the Companies Acts.

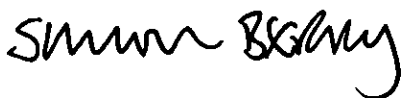

Winding-up

81. The provisions of clauses 7 and 8 of the Memorandum relating to the winding-up or dissolution of the Company shall have effect and be observed as if the same were repeated in the Articles.

Exclusion of model articles

82. The relevant model articles for a company limited by guarantee are hereby expressly excluded.
